To the Candid READER.

MEETING with the Right Honourable the Earl of Castlemain's Manifesto, and in p. 96. thereof my Name mentioned, as sub-jur'd to testify at his Lordship's Trial, That I never had any Discourse with Dangerfield about his Lordship, as the said Dangerfield pretended. And having been demanded by many of my peculiar Friends & others, whether the thing his Lordship thus alledged were true? I did, and do averr it for an absolute Truth, and as true as Truth it self. And I do also further avow, That I never had Discourse with Dangerfield, either about his Lordship, or concerning any Matter or Person else, as having never seen him but twice in my Life (before he appeared against me in the Council) and then but transiently neither. But upon what Grounds he hath made himself so familiarly acquainted with me, and swore me into the knowledge of the Honourable Lords in the Tower, (whose Faces I never yet saw as I know of) his Conscience, if he hath any, can best inform him. And as for Mr. Merry's Elizabeth Jenkinson, who also swore wicked things against me, (tutor'd thereunto certainly by the Devil, or some of his Imps) I also solemnly protest, that to my knowledg I never saw her neither, until she appeared at the Council, to act the like conscientious part against me.

But the Noise of these good Christians Oaths hath made me by many look'd upon as one of the vilest among Men; by reason whereof I have been vilified by Buffoons and Scoundrels, and my Reputation rack'd by Varlets and

and Miscreants, in their seditious Pamphlets, wherein I have been rendred an Enemy to his Majesty and the Government, tho I venerate both with my Heart. I honour Monarchy, as the very best of Governments, and most like unto that of Heaven. I naturally abhor the unquiet and contriving Jesuit, whether from Rome or Geneva. I hate the Papist in Masquerade, and nauseate the Jugling Nonconformist, that writes Narratives, and puts other Mens Names unto them. I do here again aver my self a Member of the Church of England as established by Law, and never was of any other in my Life, and am too old now to alter or change. And if Kings are God's Vice-gerents on Earth, as I do know and perfectly believe them to be, I have no reason to doubt but that they are inspired from Heaven, with that very way of Worship in the Parts they govern, which is most agreeable to the Mind, Will, and Honour of the Divine Majesty. I do also believe, that true Religion consists more in Action than Words. Pure Religion, and undetiled, is, Not to plot against the Innocent, nor yet to slay, and take possession; to remove our Neighbour's Land-marks, or to rob the Heir of his Birth-right: But rather to visit the Widow and the Orphan, and to relieve the Oppressed, and such as are in want. It teacheth us to walk humbly with God, and to do as we would be done unto. And whoever pretends Religion, and walketh not according to this Rule, can be no other than an Hypocrite. And thus in brief, (kind Reader) thou knowest the Faith and Opinion of

Brick-Court, by the

That Great Corner of Christianity, St. Paul, persuades us to keep the Unity of the Spirit in the Bond of Love. Eph. 4. And that glorious Martyr Arch-Bishop Laud, preaching upon these Words to the Parliament, of 628. hath this Passage. — Joyn them (saith this good Bishop) and keep the Unity of the Spirit, and I'll fear no Danger, who Maies were Lord of the Ascendant in the very instant of this Session of Parliament, & in the second House, or joyn'd, or in Aspect of the Lord of the second; which yet Polesmy thought brought much hurt to Common-Wealths, Aphor. 84. — I am sure it is for want of this Unity, that we are subject to so various Mischiefs: and yet I fear more is behind. The angry Stars do blench out Enemies, faster than the kind Planets can breath forth Unity. — Hear Haly. — Si h' spexerit ☉ ex & signif. quod reges habebunt adversarios, homines de populo religiosos & fratres, & eos qui legem predicant, &c. What hopes is here then of Unity? God in his good time will give it us, viz. When we are inclinable to Obey our Superiors: and when we shall hate Violence, Fraud, Perjury, &c. — The day is coming when Loyalty, Truth and Justice, shall prevail; notwithstanding the present gloominess reigning among us.

Lunar Aspects

Ancient Observations.

[illegible]

Jupiter In ☽ in Δ of ♄ in ♋, bodes much good to those Kingdoms and Nations, Princes and Nobles who have ☽ for their Horoscope: whereat (♃ in ♋ in ♄ ♄) divers turbulent and unquiet S. i. i. s. in great Cities or Corporations, seem to repine, if not rage. But let ♃ be supported by ☉ ♄ and ♀ still, and then let the Sons of Discontent fret and fume, if they please, and study their own Destruction. — Many Eminent Honours seem to be conferred upon deserving Persons near this time: and one or more great Men received into Favour. — The Loyal and Obedient Sons of the Church, and Law, flourish, and meet Encouragement. Some busy Brains at work, and a fear of some ridiculous Sham-Plot, now, or near these times started to make a Noise withal; but the Inventors are severely punished. But that which is better News, Merchants meet happy Returns; and our pious Cheats begin to lessen in their Number. — The glozing Hypocrite who counterfeits Religion, and puts on Holiness for a show, is as much a Traitor to Government, as he that coins false Money, is to his King and Country:

Fiat justitia, ruat Cælum.

The Sign is in the Head! Hermes appears
In Arms: there to create new Fears,
And Jealousies. Ambitious Majors too,
Joins with him there, the Clergy to undo.
Which looks like Lambeth-Tumults: but Jove's strong,
Disdains the Snarls of each malignant Tongue.

March is a blustering Month Morally as well as Naturally, and sundry Enthusiasts now disturb the publick Peace. ♀ in ♀ (for near 10 Weeks together,) stimulates the unkind Effects of the late several Solar Delinquencies in that fiery Sign. I hope no more Paper-War to Plague us with more Histories, Narratives, Discoveries, Characters, &c. and yet I fear something like it. — There was a time (yet fresh in Memory) when Men pretended a Call from God, to do the work of the Devil, viz. first in rebelling against and then in murdering the best of Princes: and soon after sundry Nobles. They first took from the Sun his Stars of Honour, his Guards or Satellites, and then drew their black and Hellish Curtain of Perjury, &c. to darken his glorious Beams. But these pious Sinners must not be told of their Faults. — ♂ ♀ ♀ ♀ all in ♀ together: many great Councils and Consultances about this time. Oh! the seemingly fair, yet fraudulent Debates and Consultations that are now on Foot. All kind of Persons are like Watermen, look one way and row another. Sundry Knaveish and circumventing Bargains and Contracts, to the ruine of many insuspicious People. — From Godly Frauds, sanctified Rebels, and Wolves in Sheeps Clothing. — Libera Nos, &c.

The two grand Starry Rebels now in Square,
Destroys each other's Plots: yet both prepare
To wound bright Phaëton, and the Paphian-Queen,
With Darts of Malice, to the World unseen.
Hermes smites Jove: Geneva-Jesuits be,
As bad as Rome's, to England's Unity.

Astrological Observations.

The Male Configurations of this Month produce Male Influences. Saturn hath changed his Signe, and is now got into the Lion; whence he cast's an angry ☐ to ☉ and ☿ creating strange Passions in, and among Men. One Man envies the Honour and Happiness of another, and as acted by a Spirit of Pride and Ambition, are ever studying the ruine of each other. The Prophecy of Merlin seems to be now a fulfilling, in earnest.—viz.—Fishes shall devour Fishes; and Men shall devour Men: But I am doubtful, that which follows will scarce be made good in this miserable Age.—viz.—The River of Thames (and sure he means thereby the Grandeur of the British Nation) shall flow again; and the united Rivers shall exceed the bounds of the Channel.—And yet ♃ in ☿ in Sex-tile of Warlike ☿ (England's Planet) doth seem to raise and rowse the Genius of these British Islands, and make the Enemies of its Government to look Pale and Tremble at the thoughts of some famous and formidable Councils and Actions, now, or neer at hand.

Obedience is better than Sacrifice.

May hath XXXI Days.

The happy Aspects now make blest each day,
This Month affords : That all the Year were May !
For now we have rejoycings ; Happy News ;
Our Enemies turn Friends : and those that use
Us to neglect, do Court and Woe us now,
Thrice happy England ! were but all Months so.

Archaeological Observations.

In May 1660 (the Year of his Majesty's happy Restauration) the Planets were equally friendly as now: and therefore I use the same Poetick Lines as then. I have bin often pillaged by others, and why may I not for once plunder my self? that being a more pleasing Penance. — May ♀ be always strong in II on the 29th of this Month; and may the Virgin have H and J (viz. Power and Prudence) ever for her Supporters. Then shall Albion soon recover from the Saturnine Atrophy it long languished under. — ♄ is strong in G and the Loyal Clergy are in greater esteem than formerly; and may possibly meet a time to tell the World they discover much Knavery in the pretended Naked Truth H. — Four Planets in II raise a Genius of Honour, Ingenuity, and good Policy in the Sons of the Twins, which may help to heal the breaches of opposite Parties, and like David's Harp, allay the evil Spirit that acts in the Children of Disobedience: teaching them to prize Unity as a Blessing and better Manners, than to murmur against great Jove himself: and to value the Power of Kings and Magistrates, because the Holy Scriptures aver it for an External Truth. — That —

*Mars in the Twins triumpheth, and creates Diseases in Men's Persons, Minds, Estates!
If London would from discontents be free,
From Moral Fires still preserved be;
She must restrain th'Incendiary's Pen,
That strives t' embroyl her with Warrs, Plagues agen.*

Autobiographical Observations.

Mars in Π swift in Motion bodes trouble to a great City of Europe, and irritates her Sons of Discontent to unreasonable Oppositions in their most serious Debates, whether in choosing new Officers, or in whatsoever else they may at this time be concerned, &c. Merchants grow Melancholly, several of them break, and are made Bankrupts against their Wills. God preserve us from fraudulent Actions and casual Fires; or other malicious Contrivances that tend to the disturbance of the publick Tranquillity.——The Effects of the Moon's Eclipse in February now begin to shew themselves.——It seems to be the forerunner of both mental and corporal Disturbances to Persons of eminent Quality, Birth, and Command: of sundry Discords and Dissentions among the Multitude, tending almost to Sedition and Mutiny. The Multitude is overrude and unreasonable (saith one) and Sedition is commonly the work of mean Varlets. A Massianello, or Wat Tyler, can give sufficient disturbance to a lawful Government.——A great, but covetous Female is menaced, with a lessening of her Glory and Grandeur, some of her secret Vertues (per Antiphrasin) are liable to some gentle Taxation.

Tempus omnia revelat.

The Dog bites *so*rer than he was wont to do:

♀ in ♌ accompanying Eloquent ♀ adds honour & fame to persons of great parts, and makes them honour'd and admired as Comets in the world. But their conjunction so near the end of that noble Sign, & one of them soon falling retrograde & the other entering her fall, denotes those sudden honours (like Jonah's Gourd) soon to fade, & come to nothing. The ☉ of ☉ and ♌ in the beginning of ♌ raises some truly learned and pious Clergy-men to great dignity & that lasting too! for ♌ is a fixed sign. — The ☉ of ☉ & ♌ is of ill import to the harvest, & the prodromus of a sickly season, scarcity of Grain, many murmurings and discontent; the covetous envious man grinds the face of the poor, and ☉'s charity is hindered by ♌ in ♌ his own Domal dignity. — Covetous brutish Scurrilous-wretches, envy others the common benefits of Nature. — God grant no hoarders of Corn, or other useful Commodities, appear now to hinder and eclipse Gods blessings. — Covetousness is the root of all evil. And as the wise Syriac said, אשר יאמר לעולם יאמר ויהיה. The man that loves money, or makes Gold his God, will not (cannot) be just, Eccl. 31. Let the enemies of the Commonwealth, such as hoarders, forestallers, &c. be punished.

On the 8th day of this Month we have a Lunar Eclipse in the last decanate of ♋, which prenotes a wonderful change in sundry eminent affairs, and that for the better — They are the words of Proclus — Insignem rerum omnium mutationem facit, qua tamen quicunque graviore perpessi fuerint, è malis liberentur. — God grant they prove true; and it is not unlikely; for no less than four of the seven Planets change their Signs in this very month. But alas! true and lasting happiness never comes upon wings, but crutches. Howbeit, to some particular kinds of men here is success promised. Merchants and Traders to Sea meet happy returns; Clergy-men, and those of the long robe meet preferment, and many worthy persons that have long waited in the Courts of Princes for advancement, are now made happy therewith. — Venus in ♋ in * of 4, doth greatly advantage the noble Island of Jamaica, and increaseth the Trade, Growth and Manufacture of that gallant Country. — They are now approaching the Influences of ☉ ad ♂ ♀, which (sub Dio) creates unto them many fruitful and fortunate years. Which may commence at the coming of their former fortunate Governor.

September hath XXX Days.

Bright Sol no sooner mounts the Scales, but May
'Gaiust Chronus doth denounce Domestick wars.

Each lays a claim to th' Regency o' th' Heart,

And from's presence unwillingly will part :

They fight, and pause! But Jove appears i'th' field,
While both, as Rebels, to his mercy yield.

This Month produceth a famous ☿ of ♈ in ♌, the dignities of the ☉. Astrologers tell us that those Conjunctions which seldom happen, do make the noblest impressions upon mundane affairs, and are of the most durable influence. — The decade of this ☿ is represented by a young man with a Hawk on his fist, and signifies Love and Society, and of not losing ones own for shunning of quarrels, prejudice, &c. — Which tacitly tells us that a just and good man can be valiant under afflictions, and yet be obedient to his Sovereign. — This ☿ adorns the 14 day of this month; and though ♀ in ♍ (i.e. the frantick Tribe) do grumble and snuffle, yet the Swans of the world begin to sing melodious welcomes to a late despised Hero, whose glory 'tis to have ☿-cum ☉ in reception of ☉. But the enemies to vertue are blinded with envy, and want the knowledg of Astrology, as well as the use of Helicon. — What sad Christians must they be that shall formally hear the Commination on an Ashwednesday, and yet labour not only to remove their Neighbours Landmark, but rob him of his Birth-right too? — Si bi sancti, qui Scythie? Si bi Christiani, qui Cannibales? — Sed, Cybina autem vultis.

December hath XXXI Days.:

Thus have I run my Stage this angry year.

A year prodigious ; (if the stars say sooth) ;

And over-laden with all kind of care.

Proving Astrology ally'd to Truth.

To give more proof, observe how Christmas is,
That's cold and turbulent, what are's our cheer.

Grave and serious consultations among the Senators of the world, who strive to quiet contrary Interests. Many removals of great Officers in Church and State. But all on a sudden some unexpected disturbances from a male contented party. — Combustiones, Infortunia, Merdacia, terribiles rumores, &c. divers false and scandalous rumors spread to amuse the credulous, begetting troubles and misfortunes to several well meaning persons. — Sundry zealous madmen under pretence of driving us to the Primitive purity of Christianity, would willingly reduce us to its primitive poverty too. — Silly souls! what? would they have Religion to be ever in its swaddling clothes? and never admit of any growth at all? must our Saviour be worship'd always in a Stable? and confin'd constantly to a Manger? — had such reformers been always in their Standing stools, or Nurses Arms, their notions might have been as dwarfish as their persons, and Religion escap'd their poysonous oppositions; whereas now the Tares have almost choakt the good wheat. — The year ends with various air and actions.

Soli Deo Gloria.

God save our Sovereign CHARLES! our Faiths Defender:
Let Englishmen his LAWS and HONOUR tender.
Protect Queen KATHERINE! [Englands Nursing Mother.]
Preserve YORK's Duke! [our King's Illustrious Brother.]
Who to these Pious VOTES denies his Hand,
I'll pray for him too! but, with him out o'th' Land.
Omnis potestas à Deo est.

We honour LAW, but wonder much to see
It's Ministers so merciful should be,
As not the Judges Honours to support:
But pass by Scandals 'gainst both King and Court.
Bear up bright JUSTICE! let Libazines know,
By wounding this, they work their Overtrow.
Dormit aliquando Lex, & moribus non patitur.

Astrological Observations on the Year 1682. By JOHN GADBURY.

Virtus his Sapiens, Sanctus dominabitur Astris, Vir terræ pronus sensibus is suberit.

ONE of the best among the dissenting Clergy, viz: Mr. Joseph Caryl in his Exposition on Job, tells us, That the Hebrew word for Heaven comes from a root which signifies to AMAZE and ASTONISH. And indeed there are Mysteries ver. numerous in the Heavens sufficient to astonish the most considering among men. Nay, even in this very year 1682. I find some things so astonishing, that my little room will not permit me the liberty of an Explanation according to the minute apprehension and understanding God hath given me of them.

That I may be the more plainly understood in my Discourse of this years Influences, I will propound the method following.

1. Something touching the late famous Comet, or Blazing Star, which was seen in most parts of the known world.
2. Of the great Eclipse of the Moon which will happen in Virgo, in February this year.
3. Of the Sun's Ingress into Aries.

1. Of the late Great Comet.

The Learned Dr. Gell. in a Sermon call'd Stella Nova, Or a New-Star leading unto Christ, Pag. 6, & 7. (for the honour of Astrology) tells us, That Chalcidius a Platonic Philosopher, who lived at the time when our Lord was made manifest in the flesh, be writing upon Plato's Timæus, concerning divers Stars, and their direful effects, as Plagues and Wars, &c. hath these words, There is a more holy and Divine History which reports,

That

That by the appearing of a certain extraordinary Star, not diseases and death was foreshewn, but the Venerable descent of God for mans salvation; which Star was observed by the Chaldeans, who worshipped God new-born and become man, and offer'd him gifts. And in p. 24, & 25, of the same Sermon, the said learned Divine observes, That the STAR in Cassiopeia designed another great work of God.

And (as the thrice excellent Cardan avers), we find that so oft as the great Creator of all things hath any new work, or Law to establish in the world, or any other good for the benefit of man; or any evil to inflict, as a scourge for sin; it is his pleasure to admonish all the faithful that such things are to succeed, yea long before they happen. and this in such manner, as they shall truly acknowledg him to be God, and adore him. The truth whereof is affirm'd by so many holy Books of the old Law, wherein the Prophets foretold all things which were to befall the Hebrews; yea, it was evermore design'd in the Universal Book of Heaven, and demonstrated by Great Conjunctions of the Planets, Comets, &c. as that Conjunction under the Constellation of Andromeda did the Circumcision; the Conjunction in Pisces under the Image in Cassiopeia, did the Mosaical Law: The Conjunction in Leo under the Image of Vexillus, the first Emperour. The Scit of the Chaldeans under the Conjunction of Saturn, Jupiter, and Mars, whereupon the Chaldeans did begin their Burnt-Sacrifices, and worshipped the Divinity, believed by them to be mixed with Fire, and supposed that the Fire was changed into God, its former accidents still remaining.

Certain it is, that Comets are intended by God as signs of approaching calamities to befall mankind. And therefore Fromundus saith, Cometem non esse physicam causam calamitatum, sed signum potius ad placitum Dei. That a Comet is not a Physical cause of Calamities, but rather a sign thereof at the pleasure and will of God, who maketh use thereof to the terror and amendment of Mortals, even as he useth the Rainbow to signify the Covenant made between himself and man-mankind, as a token of his good will unto them.

This famous Comet first began to shew it self in November 1680, in the mornings, and was so exceeding swift in motion, that by the beginning of December it was visible in the Evenings with us in England; and so continued (except in cloudy nights) until toward the end of January following. It was curiously observed in sundry parts of the world, as well as in England; and many excellent Observations thereof I have by me, too large and numerous to be here inserted. I shall therefore select only two to present the world withal, the first of which shall be-----

An Account of this Comet from Jamaica, as I receiv'd it from Dr. Nath. Estlaugh, of Jan. 24. 1681.

S I R,

I must now acquaint you of a Comet, or prodigious Blazing-Star, that hath appear'd here this two Months and better. It was first seen the 12 of Novemb. 1680, about two in the Morning. I saw it not until the 16 day. The Tail of it was of a Saturnine colour, about 30 degrees in length, pointing Westward; swift in motion, and according to my observation (without Instruments) 4 degr. and 45 min. in 24 hours, direct. I saw it every morning, but one, until it came so near the Sun, that it could not be seen for his Rayes: I expected to see it again when it had passed the Sun; which I did on the 13 day of Decemb. one hour after Sun-set. The Tail or Blaze standing North-East, of a prodigious length, seventy degrees at least; the Star and Tail still of a pale leaden colour, and by this time I find hath gotten near six degrees of North Latitude, when it had not above two degrees at the first. It had its first beginning in Virgo, transited Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius, Pisces: and disappeared in 22 degrees of Aries. I found after it came to the opposite place of its first appearance, it lessened apace, and moved not so fast as before.----- I will leave the wise to judg of events; but yet dare almost to adventure to tell the world, That the God of Heaven and earth is angry, and hath set on fire this his Beacon, to let them know so much.

much. What the Sword cannot do, Plagues and Famine will.-----
I am, Sir, Yours, &c.

2. An exact and curious Account of the late Comet, taken at Paris, and sent to England, Jan. 17. 1681, by Monsieur Cassini.

SIR, The Comet which appears at present, passeth through the same Constellations which that of the year 1577 passed. That is to say, by Antinor, by the little Horse, and by Pegasus; and hath cut the Ecliptick in the 21 degr. of Sagittary, and the Equinoctial in the 300 degree of distance from the first point of Aries now, as that did Anno 1577, according to the observation which Tycho made thereof. And were it not that the fixed Stars have advanced since his time towards the East about 1 degr. and 29 min. by the anticipation of the Æquinox, it would have passed precisely by the very same fixed Stars that did.

I foretold to the King and Court that it would follow this course so soon as I had the first observation of the Star, which did not appear at Paris until Decemb. 27, 1680, though the Tail was seen to come out of the Clouds upon the 22, and 26 days. And the grounds of this my assertion was founded upon this Hypothesis, That Comets are bodies as ancient as the world, which have regular motions by Circles which are very much Excentrical from the Earths. by which they may return, and do return the very same again, though they appear to us as different.

After it had passed Pegasus, where that of the year 1577, ceased to appear, it continued its motion the same way, which that of the year 1665 had gone; that is to say, by the Constellation of Andromeda.

Notwithstanding all the diligent Observations I have made, I cannot yet find any sensible Parrallax, which persuades me that it is much higher than the Moon.

The Head of the Comet to our simple view exceeds not the bigbigness of the Stars of the third magnitude, and through the Telescope it appears little less than the body of Saturn.

It is surrounded with a cloudy light which being turn'd opposite to the Sun, forms the Tail. This opposition to the Sun is, notwithstanding, less exact, declining a little towards the West. The length of it was 62 degr. but at present it is much decreased. The tail of it is not precisely strait, but bended a little, having its convexity towards the South, tho' at present it be less crooked than at its first appearance.

I conjecture that it is different from that which appeared above a Month ago in the morning before Sun-rise, because it hath a different course; and that Comets swiftness does not agree with the place unto which this is at present arrived.

¶ Whence I observe, that this great Comet was visible to them in the West-Indies before it was seen of us in Europe, although not very long.

2. That the Tail or stream of this Comet was much longer in Jamaica than it appear'd at Paris. Let Philosophers and Naturalists give a reason of these differences, if they please.

As to the Portents of this wonderful Star, that will become our pains the next year, when we have more carefully studied them, and shall have more room to inform the world of them. Only this I may observe, That as it was a Saurine Comet, it will most assuredly be attended with saturnine dismal effects, from the which all good Christians have reason to pray, Liberati nos Domine.

2. Of the Total Eclipse of the Moon which will happen on the Eleventh of February, 1682.

UPON the 11 of Febr. about 11 of the Clock at night, the Moon will be totally Eclipsed from our sight more than two hours together. This Deliquium or defect is celebrated in the Mid-heaven, in 3 degr. 53 min. of the Cælestia Virgo, the great Dignities of the nimble Planet Mercury; and the Cælestia Scorpion, (the Turk's Horoscope) riseth in the East at the middle thereof, and the angry Planet Mars, the warlike

Lord or Ruler thereof is in the fourth Angle in 18 degr. of the Fishes. Many people professing Christianity will be apt to promote the Principles of Turcism, or that which is all out as bad, and as destructive to the Faith once contended for by the Saints, and now professed by us. Sundry crafty subtile Mercurial designs seem now to be set on foot among us, but I conceive of no great Emolument or advantage to the projectors or contrivers of them. Mercury is with Cauda Draconis, Combust, in his detriment, and in 8 y , ex Angulis, as you may see by the Figure thereof, which is thus:

Averte oculos in qua ☿ fuerit in Angulo, saith Almarzor. Turn away thine eyes from, or look not upon that Figure of Heaven, wherein Mars is placed in an Angle, for such a Position can never betoken any good to mankind. Si ☿ fuerit in Punctis, &c. when ☿ in the Figure of an Eclipse, or Revolution. Shall shall be found in the Fishes, he bodes great Snows and Rain, &c. a destruction of Fish, scarcity of Provisions, and a dearth of things useful for man and beast. And not only this, but also sundry clashing and contradictions to happen among the great ones of the world, sundry secret murders and treacherous practices; (♂ is a Nocturnal Planet, and now under the Earth), and as he is occidental he signifies sundry infirmities to befall the vulgar and inferior sort of People, servants, &c. As his Latitude is Meridional (though but small), he generates many Locusts and Caterpillars, and such like Poysonous Creatures, &c. I indeed fear of his significations in a moral sense, as well as in a natural one. ♄ is the Dignities of Jupiter, much disturbance comes from men pretending piety, and there will appear such wretches among us, during the effects of this Eclipse, as may with to see St. Paul's Cathedral a stable for Horses again, as but of late years it was made by profane and irreligious persons, yet such as pretended to the greatest piety and purity. ♀ bodes likewise great oppositions in Councils, many Serpentine crafty debates, and a probability of the loss of sundry Charters and Priviledges, perhaps long since forfeited, though by the merciful forbearance of good Princes or Governours, no advantage hath hitherto been taken of them.

The Moon Eclipsed in the first Decade of the Virgin, (as saith Proclus) Agitationes regum inducit, atque hominum varias discordias & seditiones. Such an Eclipse induceth sundry great sicknesses (arising from Cold and driness) to happen unto Princes and great persons, with manifold dissensions and discords to be rife among men.

Meffabala tells us, that if the Lord of the Horoscope at an Eclipse be an Infortune, he boies ill according to his nature, which Planet in this Eclipse is ♄ , (as you heard before) and ♄ is never reckon'd a fortunate Planet.

This Eclipse happening in a Northern Asterism, Ptolemy says, lib. 2. Quatr. portends sudden Earthquakes. And (he goes on) as it falls in a sign having wings, (as Virgo hath) great damage and detriment will attend those curious Inhabitants of the Air, viz. all feather'd fowl; especially such as mankind usually feeds on, as Quails, Partridg, Snipe, Plover, Ducks, Geese, &c.

♄ (you heard) is ruler of this Eclipse, and he inclines men to mutability, to treachery, subtilty, craft and cunning. He generates many Thieves and Robbers at land. Pirates at Sea, committing sundry notable mischiefs to the ruin of many. He stirs up strange Enthusiastick and Fanatical humours in the brains of men, prompting them to Innovations in Religion and in the Laws and Customs of Nations. He irritates a various troubled air, high, turbulent and destructive winds, and all this th. rather by his being in ♋ in ♍ of 15.

Ptolemy says, ♄ ruler of an Eclipse produceth dry diseases, as Coughs, Quotidian Fevers, Consumptions, &c. and in the air impetuous Winds, Thunder and Lightning, bringing a Murrain and destruction upon those living Creatures and Plants, most useful for humane kind.

As this Eclipse is celebrated in a humane sign, its influence will very much be found among men, as it happens in the Mid-heaven, the greatest of men, whose Genitures sympathize therewith, will be greatly sensible of its effects. As Virgo is a Feminine sign, &c. it is to be feared that part of the violence hereby portended will explain it self either in the death, banishment or divorce of some great Empress, Princess, or Dutchess, &c. East, or South East from England; which may occasion a moral Earthquake, or aliquid tale, to happen between some great Families, Countries, or Nations, not easily to be reconciled. ♄ came in ♋ in ♋, the Exaltation of ♄ denotes payson to be poured into the ears of great persons. I am loth even to think, much less to say, by what kind of persons, because I have a value for any that have the least pretence of relation to ♄, though in the worse sense. And yet I must tell you here is denoted much trouble by some men pretending Religion, who are guided by a spirit rather Diabolical than Divine. Is not ♄ Retrograde in the Ninth? yes, and and ♄ also. I affirm it upon clear grounds in Astrology, that the Zealous Dissenters, Non obstante their pretences to conscience, are enemies both to Moses and our Saviour Christ. Moses commands us not to remove our Neighbours Landmark. Our Saviour enjoins us, To do as we would be done unto. And those men that contradict these Rules, are not only enemies to the Government of the World, but themselves also, though they will not see it.

Let but our disturbant dissenting Brethren call but to mind the strange actions of Venner and his Crew, and of the sundry sad wickednesses and Barbarities of the late Rebellion. I know that they delight not to hear of 41, or 48, or of the sins of their Predecessors, the Pharisees of the late times; but yet if they take not pleasure in putting us to the trouble of becoming their remembrancers of these things, let them not tread in their defiled steps, but walk in more honest and even paths.

I say more Honest, &c. for he cannot be honest or just, that wilfully opposeth the Laws he lives under, because either himself, or Ancestors have consented to the making of them. Besides, Government or Order is a right line, the Eclipse of Truth and Honesty; and whoever deviates or declines from that, cannot be robustus homo & legalis, inasmuch as he is a breaker of concord and unity, and an introducer of confusion. Nay he is a transgressor of that Golden Rule, which is the bond of all peace, Ab altero speres, alteri quod feceris.

Say, Anarchus? wouldst thou be contented that any under thy own Government or command, (suppose thy Wife Children, or Servants) should take upon them to oppose thy Orders, or dispute thy Edicts? (which for them to do, or thee to suffer, must hazard the ruin of both themselves and thee too) I am very well assured thou wouldst not be patient under such usage or dealing: No! thou wouldst in such a case either make use of the Civil Power to reduce them, or banish them thy Family. Or (as Mr. Simpson did by Captain Robert Norwood, Ann. 1651, being one of his gather'd Church, as they they call'd it) Excommunicate them, & give them over to the Devil. Thou must not therefore (Anarchus!) oppose the Government, or contend against thy Superiours, and expect to be esteemed just and honest.-----To say no more, let us remember, That Princes have long arms, and Magistrates large reaches. Thus much for the Moons Eclipse.

3. Of the Suns Ingress into Aries, 1681.

The Horoscope of the Lunar Eclipse in February is the Mid-heaven in this Vernal Ingress, thereby intimating the actions thereon depending to be speedily produced, and this the rather, for that the Horoscope of this Scheme is movable, and four Planets therein being in movable Signs, declares also quickness of action.

The dull and envious Planet Saturn is Lord of the Horoscope of this Revolution, denoting it to be none of the best in in signification and influence. Saturn is in Platick Conjunction of Saturn in the seventh Angle. Astrologers tell us, That if h shall in any year be join'd to the Moon, Erit apparitio Legatorum & rumorum, & exploratorum, & constitutio rerum, &c. There will be many Legates or Ambassadors from one King or Prince unto another; also reports of various tales or rumors to the amusing of many, and an Apparition of several spies and busie-bodies, making observations upon, and prying into the secrets of Emperours, Princes, Kingdoms, Nations, and Commonwealths; but withal a settlement of many matters or things which have been long unsettled, as well in Church as State; and a performance of many great and glorious actions by the Magnates of the world. Nay, so publickly forward will men be in their actions, that the vulgar or common man will be aiming to equal himself with those of the highest Classis. Albeit, I must remember my forward Confident, that the Toad in the Fable burst himself by striving to swell into an Ox.

What shall I say? can the grand enemy of nature bode any good this year to mankind? Is he not in the seventh Angle, and in the house of his enemy too? I greatly doubt it.

Quum β fuerit in \mathcal{L} , &c. when β shall be Lord of any Revolution, and in \mathcal{L} , having North Latitude, as here, he causeth much rain, and a corruption of things that grow on the Earth useful for mankind, and renders the designs and projects of many men frustrate. And if he be occidental (he is so) he bodes the Pestilence, and much mortality to happen, and being Retrograde all these evils shall be the more grievous and terrible. As \mathcal{L} is the Dignities of \odot , β herein signifies much treachery and perfidiousness to be used among great persons. Honour the ordinary Amulet of secrecy and friendship, will now be rendered cheap and vile, and shall have but little obligation upon men. I well remember the great Frauds and Treacheries of 1652, 1653, 1654, when β was in \mathcal{L} as now.

Leo represents the Heart in mans body ; viz. the Shop or Store-

Storehouse of the Imagination, of Honour and Honourable Actions, &c. and that polluted, soon pollutes not only the Intellectuals, but the Morals also, metamorphosing men into Beasts. The Heart is the grand Instrument of the Soul, and when that is debilitated, the Soul cannot perform its functions or offices with any manner of delight. It is the Author of fear, horror, cold and trembling, and with these qualities he invades the Hearts of many in this Revolution.

A cold Heart stands in need of Cordials, which in Δ γ would give in case γ in Ω prove not too proud and insulting on the one hand, and too covetous and close fitted, and gripping on the other, and unto these two Extreams mankind will be generally inclinable in this year. A glory-hearted γ cares not how he devours his own children. Covetous wretches will be apt to hoard up the most useful Commodities, even to the destruction of many people: unless the sun, that is the Magistrate, interpose by his power to prevent them. I should take notice of the \odot \odot γ in Ψ , and of γ his \square to γ in \odot , and thence shew how the Commonwealth will waste and destroy their substance in this year, viz. by Quarrels, Contentions, Law-suites, and the like. How γ more shily, and γ more publickly and violently play their pranks to injure humane kind. γ 's slow progress in mischief makes him little minded in his contrivances; while the heats of γ alarm all people. All violent and sudden things carry amazement and surprize in them, and are abhorrent to nature, according to Hippocrates, and all Philosophers. And that is the reason that a Consumption is not dreaded so much as a Fever, though it kill as surely. And why war is accounted more terrible than either Plague or Famine.

I am confin'd to my narrow scantling of Paper, and therefore for conclusion, have only a few things to commit to the breast of the true Adeptus, or Son of Urania, for no other can understand them: Nor is it fit they should.

1. The Thundering Scorpionist aims at Universal Empire; and will go far in his attempts thereof. But if he once break
Truce

Truce with the Virgin, he is ruin'd for ever; and makes a Saturnine and Martial Exit.

2. The Goat may sport it yet a little longer if he but have a care to avoid Hungarian Treachery and Temptation.

3. The Crab's the better for the \odot 's being in Δ to γ in it, and for Chronus's crawling into the Lions Den.

4. Mars in Leo makes happy a Royal Fair; and γ and γ in Ω begin to tremble for their casting so much Paper-venome upon the brightest and most immaculate Glories.

5. The Scales of Christendom are held by the Celestial Virgin; and were it not so, Christianity would soon be in a sad condition. But Virgo (sub Jove) relates as well to the Original as progress of the Christian Faith.

6. Constantinople and Geneva are discover'd to be near of kin; 'twere well for Europe if they were married together. Nostradame seems to have made an Epithalamium that may aptly fit the Wedding. 'Tis this,

*Du Lac Lemane les Sermons fuseront,
Des jours seront reduits par des Sepmaines,
Puis Mois, puis An, puis tous defallront,
Les Magistrats damneront leurs Loix vaines.*

Which may bear this English.

*Geneva-Figgs shall disagree,
And Days turn'd into weeks shall be.
So into Months, and Years; at last
Just Judges shall their madness cast.*

I will profess my self no good Interpreter of Prophecies, nor Expounder of Riddles. And yet (good Reader) I must tell you that I have read, A Search for a Schismatick; and also that wite piece of Non-conforming Divinity, call'd The mischief of Impositions, written (as I am inform'd) by the same pious Pen that wrote the Appeal from the Country to the City, the Colonel's Narrative; and many other pieces of sedition and Witchcraft; which serve to render the Government of the British Church and State, ridiculous, troubled and uneasy. God amend all! so prayeth,
